

Terms and Conditions

2023

Thank you for expressing an interest in renting space at Art on Piper (AOP). Artists may rent more than one zone, and more than one artist may display in an allocated zone.

Membership (for individual or more) is subject to approval of artwork by the Committee. If the Committee is unfamiliar with your artwork, examples must be brought into AOP for consideration by the Committee.

To ensure AOP promotes original work and with respect for other members, it is important that all artists ensure that any new works do not closely resemble existing works of other artists displayed at AOP. Any new product lines for AOP artists are to be reviewed by the Committee prior to display.

Rent can be paid prior to an artist setting up their space or on the day. The minimum rental period is 3 months. If an artist joins mid-month, rent will be pro-rated for that portion of the month. Subsequent monthly rent is to be paid by the 1st of the month by direct debit into AOP's bank account with the artist's name and invoice number as reference. Invoices for rent will be emailed out mid-month.

Each artist is to provide their own display materials that fit in with AOP's aesthetics eg white or black plinths, easels, hanging system etc. It is also an artist's responsibility to keep their display area clean. Bump in occurs on a closed Tuesday, unless otherwise agreed.

Commission on sales may vary, dependant on member roles. 15% is standard.

Payment for items sold will be made to the artist by the 15th of the following month by electronic funds transfer into a nominated bank account. A sales reconciliation spreadsheet will be emailed early each month.

AOP does not provide insurance for artwork. It is the responsibility of individual artists to insure their own artwork.

Artists are required to do 1.5 days duty per month (unless otherwise agreed) one day one month, two days next month, from 10am until 4pm. The days of the month selected by the artist are locked-in to assist planning and are interchangeable with other artists when necessary.

All items must be clearly labelled with the artist's name, retail price (including commission) and initials with code for individual tracking and payment reconciliation. Each item is recorded on an AOP consignment sheet (blanks are provided electronically and available at any time at the gallery). If an item is removed from AOP, the correlating entry on the consignment sheet must have the date of removal written in the 'removed' column.

Window themes change on the 4th Tuesday of each month, with the Committee setting up the display from stored works or occasionally items from zone displays. Consideration will be given to all art works that fit the theme for the window brick wall, floorspace and the board behind the desk. The gallery provides plinths and props as required for the display. Themes are set six months before display date (eg seasonal or regional references/colours/shapes/concepts).

AOP will regularly use images of members' artwork for promotional purposes (in full or detail) on its website, daily social media posts, printed flyers, ads and front window posters. Artists are to supply images for a wall bio and the member information folder near the desk. AOP accompanies significant sales with an edited printed artist bio.

Monthly meetings are scheduled for the Committee and all members are welcome to attend. 'Meet the Artists' public events are arranged as advised.

Any concerns or suggestions may be forwarded to Committee members for consideration.

One month's notice (in writing) is required before vacating AOP and rent must be up to date.

AOP has a Piper St exclusivity agreement whereby artwork by an artist is not to be sold in other venues in Piper St. The only exception is where an artist was represented there prior to joining.
